The regular session in an odd-numbered year shall commence on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in April. The regular session in an even-numbered year shall commence on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January. The regular annual sessions of the legislature may, by a three-fifths (3/5) vote of the membership of both houses, be extended not exceeding a total of thirty (30) days which need not be consecutive. Recesses in such extended session shall be taken only by joint action of both houses. No extended session may last beyond the sixtieth (60th) day following the adjournment of the regular annual session. During such extended session, no additional proposed legislation shall be introduced unless consent is first obtained by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the house into which it is sought to be introduced.

The governor may convene the legislature in extra session by his proclamation, but no special session convened by the governor shall exceed twenty (20) days. At any session, regular or special, the legislature may consider executive vetoes returned after adjournment of the previous legislative session.

Provided, that the legislature may also be convened in extra session in the following manner: When twenty per cent (20%) of the members of the legislature shall execute in writing and file with the secretary of state, their certificates that conditions warrant the convening of the legislature into extra session, the secretary of state shall, within seven (7) days after receiving the requisite number of such certificates, poll the members of the legislature, and upon the affirmative vote of three-fifths (3/5) of the members of both houses, shall forthwith fix the day and hour for convening of such extra session. Notice thereof shall be given each member by registered mail within seven (7) days after receiving the requisite number of said certificates. The time for convening of said session shall not be less than fourteen (14) days nor more than twenty-one (21) days from the date of mailing said notices. In pursuance of said certificates, affirmative vote of the membership and notice, the legislature shall convene in extra session for all purposes as if convened in regular session; provided, however, that any such extra session shall be limited to a period of thirty (30) days. Should the secretary of state fail to receive the requisite number of said certificates requesting the convening of an extra session of the legislature within a period of sixty (60) days after receipt of the first of said certificates, all certificates previously filed shall be rendered null and void and no extra session shall be called and said certificates shall not be used at any future time for the convening of the legislature.

SENATE MEMORIAL NO. 1028—

A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO AMEND SECTION 13 OF PUBLIC LAW 87-6, TO PREVENT INEQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS THEREUNDER.

WHEREAS, under Section 13 of Public Law 87-6, known as "The Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1961," an inequitable distribution of funds is being made whereby some states have overextended their equities in the emergency fund created by said act, and many states will receive less than they contribute, and

WHEREAS, employers in Florida and 19 other states are now accruing liabilities on wages taxable under Public Law 87-6 and payable in January of 1964, for no other reason than to meet the expected deficiencies in 5 states, and

WHEREAS, rebates under Section 13 of Public Law 87-6 have no relation to surpluses or deficits in the respective states,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the Congress of the United States be and it is hereby requested to immediately enact legislation to amend Public Law 87-6 to effect re-embursement of surpluses to all of the states creating them, and to provide for repayments to states which by the end of 1963 have failed to meet the obligation incurred thereunder.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be sent to the Florida Congressional delegation, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the United States Senate.

Proof of publication attached.

—and respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,
LAMAR BLEDSOE
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Proof of publication of Notice was attached to House Bill No. 581 when it was introduced in the Senate, and evidence that such Notice has been published was established by the Senate, as required by Section 21, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida.

And House Bill No. 581, contained in the above message, was read the first time by title only and placed on the Calendar of Local Bills on Second Reading.

Tallahassee, Florida
May 17, 1963

The Honorable Wilson Carraway
President of the Senate

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

By Representative Saunders of Monroe—

H. B. NO. 1690—A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT AUTHORIZING GROUP INSURANCE FOR OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF MONROE COUNTY, FLORIDA; AUTHORIZING PAYMENT FROM PUBLIC FUNDS FOR THE COST THEREOF; REPEALING ALL LAWS AND PARTS OF LAWS, WHETHER GENERAL OR SPECIAL, IN CONFLICT WITH THIS ACT TO THE EXTENT OF SUCH CONFLICT; AND PROVIDING WHEN THIS ACT SHALL TAKE EFFECT.

Proof of publication attached.

—and respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,
LAMAR BLEDSOE,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Proof of publication of Notice was attached to House Bill No. 1690 when it was introduced in the Senate, and evidence that such Notice has been published was established by the Senate, as required by Section 21, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Florida.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 727—

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE IX OF THE CONSTITUTION OF FLORIDA BY ADDING A SECTION TO BE NUMBERED BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE ESTABLISHING A LAND ACQUISITION TRUST FUND; CREATING AN OUTDOOR RECREATIONAL DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL; PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF REVENUE BONDS; PROVIDING AN EMERGENCY ELECTION.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That Article IX of the Florida Constitution be amended by adding the section set forth below to be numbered by the secretary of state and that said amendment be submitted to the electors of Florida for ratification or rejection at a special election to be held on That three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the membership of the legislature does determine that an emergency exists requiring an early decision by the electors of this state.

Section..... Land acquisition trust fund.—

(1) There is created and established in the state treasury a land acquisition trust fund which shall be used for the acquisition of land, water areas and property for multiple public purposes. The land acquisition trust fund shall be administered by an outdoor recreational development council which shall be composed of the governor, secretary of state, attorney general, comptroller, treasurer, commissioner of agriculture and superintendent of public instruction. The outdoor recreational development council may utilize the principal of the fund to acquire by cash purchase lands, water areas and property necessary for multiple uses or may utilize the fund for the issuance and retirement of revenue bonds for this purpose as hereinafter provided.

(2) The land acquisition trust fund shall continue from the date of the adoption of this amendment for a period of fifty (50) years. All monies and revenues from the operation, management, sale, lease or other disposition of lands, water areas, related resources and the facilities thereon acquired or constructed under this act shall be deposited in or accredited to the land acquisition trust fund. There shall also be deposited into the land acquisition tion trust fund other monies as authorized by appropriate act of the legislature.

(3) The land acquisition trust fund shall be administered by the outdoor recreational development council utilizing for assistance the trustees of the internal improvement fund or any other state agency as provided by law. In the event the outdoor recreational development council shall determine that it is necessary to issue bonds for financing acquisition of sites for multiple purposes the state board of administration shall act as fiscal agent for the council in the issuance and retirement of said bonds under such rules and regulations as may be provided by the outdoor recreational development council.

(4) All bonds issued by the outdoor recreational development council shall bear interest not exceeding four per cent (4%) per annum and shall be retired in accord with policies established by the board of administration. All costs incurred in the issuance of said bonds shall be paid from the proceeds of said bonds.

(5) The outdoor recreational development council shall have authority to refund outstanding bonds or to retire outstanding bonds in advance of their maturity dates.

(6) The state legislature, at each regular session, shall review the land acquisition trust fund and enact such additional appropriations or restrictions upon the issuance of additional bonds as it may deem necessary.

(7) The outdoor recreational development council shall in each year use the funds accruing pursuant to this amendment only in the following manner and order of priority: First, to pay all amounts of principal and interest maturing in such year on any bonds issued under its authority; second, to establish and maintain a sinking fund or funds to meet the future requirements for debt service or reserve therefor on bonds issued on behalf of the outdoor recreational development council which it shall deem to be necessary or advisable; third, the outright acquisition of any lands, water areas or properties for the multiple purposes of this act; and fourth, if at the end of any biennium the legislature determines that all multiple purpose needs of the state have been met, all funds remaining in the land acquisition trust fund shall be utilized as directed by the legislature either for the retirement in advance of maturity of outstanding obligations or paid into the general revenue fund of the state.

(8) All bonds issued under this amendment shall be sold at public sale after public advertisement upon such terms and conditions as the outdoor recreational development council shall provide and as otherwise provided by law and subject to the limitations herein imposed.
